

ILGA-Europe Rainbow Map, May 2012

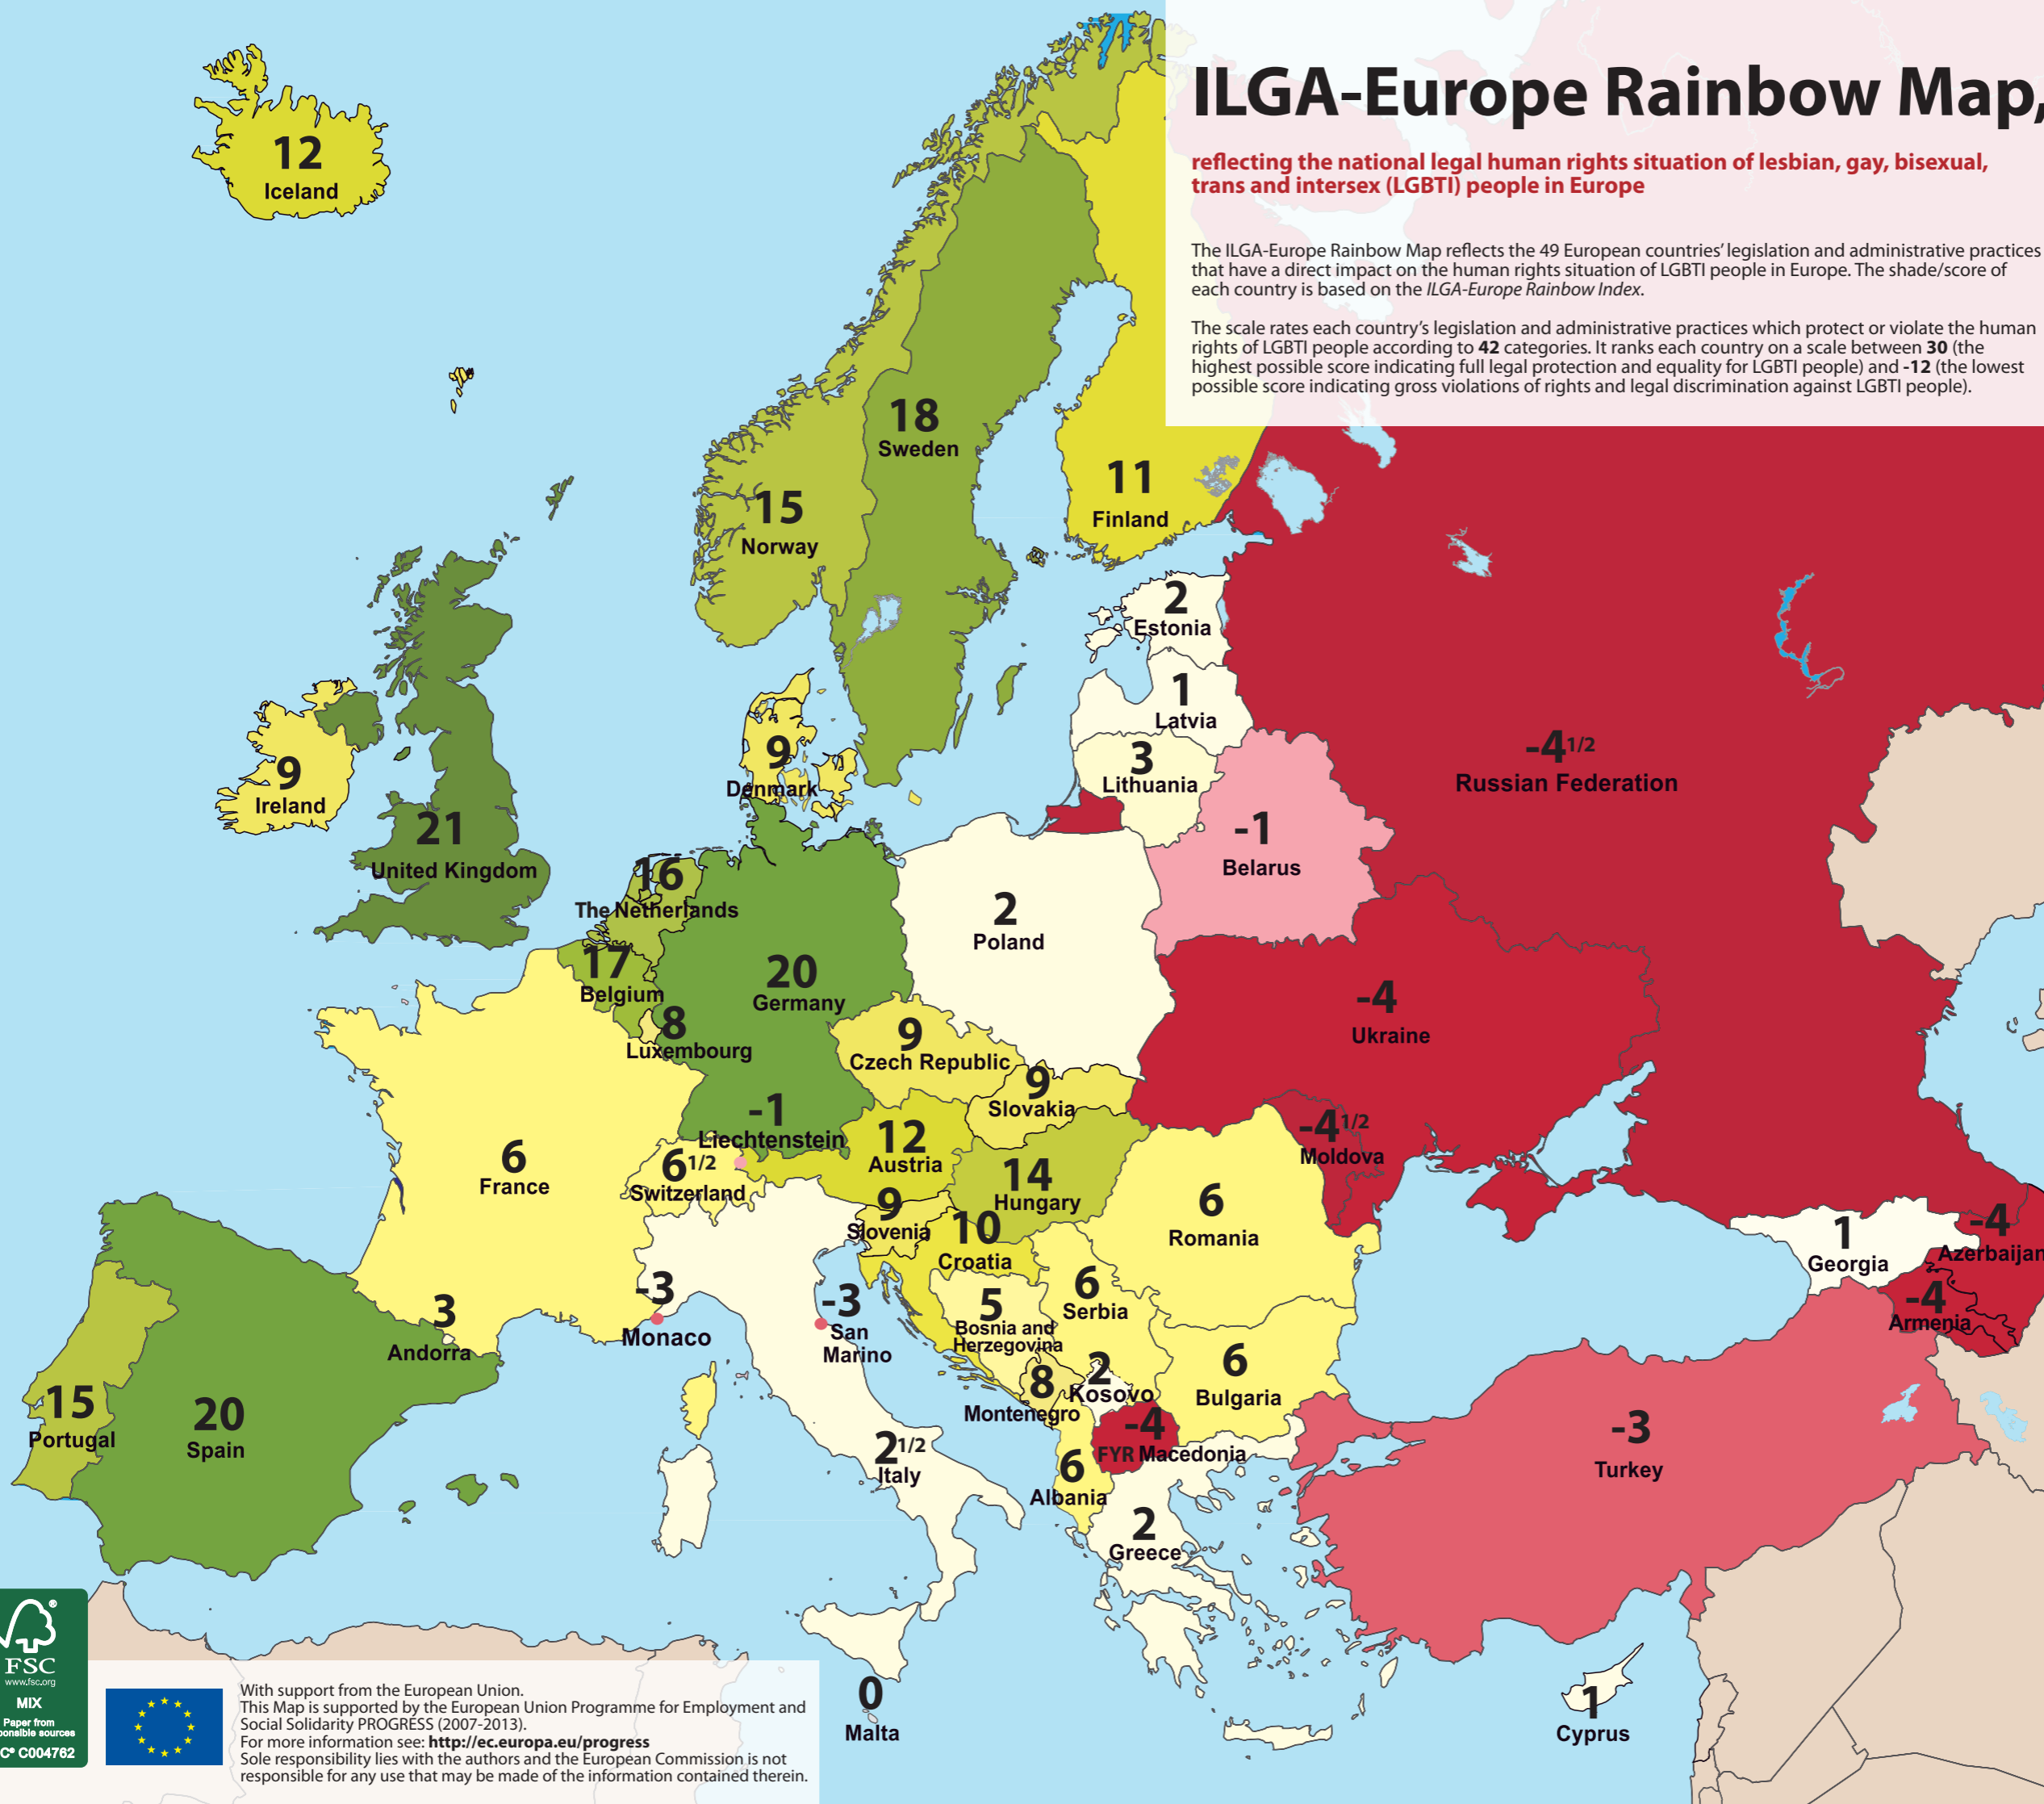

reflecting the national legal human rights situation of lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and intersex (LGBTI) people in Europe

The ILGA-Europe Rainbow Map reflects the 49 European countries' legislation and administrative practices that have a direct impact on the human rights situation of LGBTI people in Europe. The shade/score of each country is based on the ILGA-Europe Rainbow Index.

The scale rates each country's legislation and administrative practices which protect or violate the human rights of LGBTI people according to 42 categories. It ranks each country on a scale between 30 (the highest possible score indicating full legal protection and equality for LGBTI people) and -12 (the lowest possible score indicating gross violations of rights and legal discrimination against LGBTI people).

www.ilga-europe.org

With support from the European Union. This Map is supported by the European Union Programme for Employment and Social Solidarity PROGRESS (2007-2013). For more information see: <http://ec.europa.eu/progress> Sole responsibility lies with the authors and the European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.